ABOUT ME

I am a digital art director with over a decade of experience in the advertising/marketing industry and an extensive background in interactive, motion design and animation. I bring a great understanding of design and brand communications to my work. I am a dedicated and detail-oriented worker, successful individually as well as in a team setting. While each project is taken seriously, I enjoy my work, which translates to high quality creative and successful working relationships.

Interactive allows me to apply both my love of animation and of design. I am inspired by designing for user behavior, and strive to achieve a balance between simplicity and engagement in all my work. My professional experience and dedication combine to make me a motivated team player that would be a great asset to your organization.
